

A Nationally and Internationally Renowned Non-Profit Contemporary Art Gallery Located in the Heart of Creative Inglewood, in Calgary, Canada

Esker Foundation is a unique gallery space in Calgary that connects the public to contemporary art through free, relevant, accessible, and educational exhibitions, publications, and programs.

Esker foundation reflects on current developments in local, regional, and international culture; creates opportunities for public dialogue; and supports artists with the commissioning and production of ground-breaking Contemporary art, publications, and research.

Esker programs three exhibition changes per year for the fall, winter, and spring/summer seasons. In addition to the main exhibition space on the fourth floor, Esker Foundation hosts the Project Space at street level. As a vital alternative exhibition venue, the Project Space aims to engage the community by increasing the presence and accessibility of contemporary art. The Project Space program invites emerging and established artists to develop new, responsive exhibitions that directly address the neighborhood and explore important contemporary issues.

Esker Foundation is a privately funded contemporary art gallery located in Inglewood, Calgary ideally positioned in 15,000 sq.ft space on the 4th floor of the purpose-built cultural hub Atlantic Arts Block. Founded in 2012 by Jim and Susan Hill, the gallery is a model of institutional relevance, curatorial focus, and audience engagement.
